Start in Museum Lobby:

1. I shine above; look up at me;
I light the room so you can see.
2. I build, I carve, I made this house new.
Can you tell what else I do?
3. I sit outside and light the way for visitors when they go away.
4. The wood and furniture that you see started out just like me.
5. All I need to tell the time is for the sun to rise and shine!
6. Above your head, toward the sky,
I raise the roof and hold it high
7. A cross and flowers near the trees,
I am a place of memory
8. In a forest I grew tall;
now I stand on this portal.
9. In New Mexico these rays of light proclaim this house a historic site.
10. Around the nation you will find birds like me on important signs.
11. Are these hands or are they paws?
Fingernails or scratching claws?
12. A circle, some wire, some green and red...
as if by magic, a Shaman's head!
13. In the Studio, so tall and brown,
I only see you by looking down.
14. I stand on guard as if to block prying hands that test the lock.
15. I'm so pretty, it makes me sing in praise of my lovely tail and wings!
16. I am square but also round and where I am, warmth abounds.
17. Partly flower, partly plume,
here I am at the end of the room
