

GERALD J. FRITZLER

Born in Chicago, IL Gerald Fritzler now lives in Western Colorado. He studied at the American Academy of Art in Chicago and has been painting in watercolor for over 42 years! Gerald is a Signature member of the American Watercolor Society, The National Watercolor Society, Transparent Watercolor Society of America, Colorado Watercolor Society, The Rocky Mountain National Watermedia Society, Northwest Rendezvous Group, and the Plein Air Painters of America.

His watercolors have won a number of awards and have been published in a number of art books and magazines! His work is in a number of prominent collections and has been featured in many exhibitions and museum shows over the years.